

Getting Started in NoveList

The new Search box combines all the great searching capabilities you love about NoveList into one easy to use area. Use the Find box to quickly search all fields, or narrow your search to a specific field if you know exactly what you need.

The new Browse section contains all the same great NoveList content that you know and love, and more!

In this new section, there's no more searching behind tabs - it's all right at your fingertips on the homepage.

Know what feature you are looking for and don't want to peruse them all? No problem! Simply type your topic in the Find box to get quick results (ex: type "Tom Clancy", click Search, and click on the Author Read-alike tab to go straight to the read-alike for Tom Clancy).
